Live the Legend!

The legend of the 16th century comes to life at the Minnesota Renaissance Festival. Become part of the fantasy and magic, when kings reigned supreme and the arts flourished. Costumed characters represent village life from simple peasants to ornate Twelve stages are continuously alive with comedy, music and mayhem! The talented artisans sell and demonstrate their wares in more than 275 craft shops. A successful blend of lively entertainment, unusual foods, unique crafts and family fun, create all the ingredients for a 16th century amusement.

Costumes not required, but are encouraged and enjoyed!
